HALO HEAT 3v3 Tourney Postponed

Jefferson City, MO — HALO is postponing its HALO HEAT 3 versus 3 Tourney. Originally scheduled for Thursday, August 12th in downtown Jefferson City, it will now take place sometime in 2022. This event supports HALO HEAT, which is a new boys AAU Basketball Team that provides structure, teamwork and camaraderie for at-risk youth attending the HALO Boys Program.

“At HALO, the health and safety of the youth we serve, as well as our volunteers and supporters, is of the utmost importance at all times. With the rapid community spread of the COVID-19 Delta Variant and the extreme heat index on Thursday, our planning team feels it would not be safe to have this event and would be best to postpone it to 2022,” said HALO Founder and CEO Rebecca Welsh.

All sponsorship benefits will be carried over to the 3v3 Tourney in 2022.

“We apologize for any inconvenience this causes you, and we share in the disappointment in this change of plans. We are so appreciative of all our sponsors and could not serve the children in our community without your support. HALO will be in touch in the coming months on a new date for this tourney and look forward to experiencing this special event to benefit our HALO Heat program,” Welsh said.
